

RECORD BREAKER

BRITAIN'S latest hearthrob Rick Astley last night jetted off on a 10-day holiday in Ibiza with girlfriend Jackie Price following a row with his record company about his being overworked!

The poor lad has a point. In the eight weeks which have elapsed since he first topped the charts with Never Gonna Give You Up, 21-year-old Rick has travelled over 9,000 miles on EIGHT different airlines to TEN different countries and carried out a staggering: 96 radio interviews... 84 newspaper interviews... 57 magazine interviews... 25 TV interviews as well as singing his hit song on TV 47 times.

With his first tour being planned and his new single looking like another hit Rick deserves a holiday.
